

A FIELD BASED TRAINING ON LICHENS, IN FORESTRY

A field based training on lichens, dedicated to the field forest officials was organized by Uttarakhand Forestry Research Institute (UKFRI), Haldwani in collaboration with Indian Lichenological Society (ILS), Lucknow, from May 04 to May 07, 2022. During this training session, Dr. D.K. Upreti, Dr. Sanjeeva Nayaka, Dr. Gaurav K Mishra and Dr. Siljo Joseph briefed the trainees about the identification, utilization, segregation techniques, and preservation etc. of lichens. A field visit was also conducted to understand and to identify the different growth forms and collection techniques of lichens. During this training, Shri Sanjiv Chaturvedi, CF/CCF, Research and Shri Kundan Kumar, DCF, Research was also present on behalf of UKFRI, Haldwani.

